Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

Ilma Babu, Employee, appeared for the Respondent. The Petitioner was represented by Michael Grosso.

The Respondent was charged with idling the engine of a vehicle for more than three minutes at 399 Lafayette Street in Manhattan on February 3, 2025. The summons was issued as a 3rd Offense.

The Respondent's Representative denied the charge and did not provide a rebuttal.

I find that the Petitioner's summons to be persuasive evidence that the Respondent was in violation on the date of issuance.

The summons is hereby sustained and the 3rd offense penalty will be applied accordingly.
