Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

The Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) issued these Summonses to Penske Truck Leasing. Each Summons is based on a citizen complaint and each charges that a vehicle owned or controlled by Penske was illegally idling for more than three minutes on the date and at the location indicated above. Senior Inspector Antoine Gibbs represented Penske at the remote hearing, and relied on the Summonses. Tiffany Irizzary represented Penske and denied the violations without offering any defenses. Accordingly, these violations are sustained and the standard or first violation penalty of $350 imposed for each.
