Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

At the phone hearing petitioner did not appear. The respondent appeared by T. Irizarry from The Nacmias Law Firm.

The summons charges a second violation of NYC AC 24-163, for idling of motor vehicle for longer than three minutes, first offense. Truck NJ License XBHV80.

The summons cites prior violation 0008-557-00M, issued on 3.25.24, and after a hearing was upheld. Ms. Irizarry did not challenge the repeat status of the summons, and she stated the respondent denied the violation but did not have a rebuttal. I find petitioner established its case. The summons is sustained.
