Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent appeared by its authorized representative Tiffany Irizarry to respond to the charge of idling a motor vehicle for more than three minutes (second violation) and stated that Respondent is not contesting the prior violation.

Petitioner appeared by Sr. Inspector Monnica Dorson and submitted photos and a video of the truck in question and a redacted idling complaint.

After reviewing the video Inspector Dorson stated that the back of the subject truck is open and the truck's engine is audible but there was no loading or unloading and no processing device in use.

Ms. Irizarry stated that a worker was working.

I credit Petitioner's evidence and find that Petitioner established a prima face charge of idling a motor vehicle for more than three minutes and that there was no loading or unloading during the entire duration of the video.

Respondent did not establish a defense to the idling charge.

Accordingly the summons is sustained with the penalty imposed for a second violation.
