Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

On August 7, 2026, Tiffany Irizarry, a registered representative, appeared on behalf of Respondent, Pane Extravaganza, Inc., for a remote hearing by telephone. Petitioner did not appear, relying on the Issuing Officer's affirmed statements in the summons.

Respondent was charged with violation of §24-163(f) of the Administrative Code of the City of New York for idling of motor vehicle engine for more than one minute while adjacent to school or park.

The Issuing Officer affirmed in the summons that on February 11, 2025, "Respondent caused or permitted the idling of a motor vehicle parked, standing or stopped while adjacent to Garibaldi Playground. As per DEP records, citizen observed VAN with NY License Plate # 14733NE idling for longer than one minute from 2/11/2025 11:42:00 PM to 2/11/2025 11:45:00 PM at 8204 18 Ave."

Respondent's representative denied the charge without rebuttal.

I credit the Issuing Officer's statements in the summons, which establish that the vehicle's engine had been idling for longer than one minute while adjacent to a park in violation of Code § 24-163(f). Respondent submitted no credible evidence to refute the charge or provide a defense.

Based upon the foregoing hereinabove, the preponderance of the evidence establishes that the vehicle's engine had been idling impermissibly for more than one minute while adjacent to a park, and I impose a standard penalty of $350.00.

Wherefore, the summons is hereby sustained accordingly.
