Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent, charged with idling, was represented by Ms. Tiffany Irizarry, who was sworn. The DEP did not appear and rested on the summons.

Ms. Irizarry indicated that she was denying the violation but not offering any evidence in defense (DNR).

The face of the summons makes out a prima facie case of violation.

Based on the foregoing, I find the respondent is unable to successfully rebut the observation of a violation, by a fair preponderance of the credible evidence.

The violation is sustained.
