Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Nora Brown appeared on behalf of Respondent for a phone hearing on July 21, 2026 in response to the above-issued summons. Kofi Speed appeared on behalf of Petitioner FDNY.

Respondent claimed that the issue was corrected and submitted correction documentation to the FDNY prior to the hearing. Respondent requested mitigation.

Petitioner claimed the underlying violation was only valid until 3/12/26; the summons only contains a single offense; they are unable to amend to a first offense; and therefore there is no prima facie case.

I find that the Petitioner failed to establish a prima facie case as there were not two unwarranted alarms within the required time frame. Summons dismissed.
