Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

This hearing was held telephonically on February 13, 2025

Mabel Oghojafor appeared on behalf of Respondent Bagels on the Blvd. Inc. Russell Walker appeared on behalf of Petitioner FDNY.

Petitioner charges VC 5, kitchen decal has hand written certificate of fitness holder information and failure to produce records that ansul systems were serviced by licensed master fire suppression piping contractor S-71 holder.

Respondent submitted an affidavit that the Respondent "maintained at the premises required records for operation of a commercial kitchen and maintenance of associated appliances, devices, and equipment" and that Respondent "updated the fire extinguishing service tags." Respondent also submitted photos of the updated fire extinguisher tags, of the kitchen hood sticker, and a receipt for services performed by the Mobile Fire Extinguisher Company.

Petitioner reviewed and recommended standard penalty, Respondent's evidence does not show that the violating conditions were corrected.

I credit the summons details and find Respondent in violation. I find that Respondent has not shown timely correction.

Accordingly, this summons is upheld and the standard penalty imposed.
