Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The summons alleges a violation of VC19 of the NYC Fire Code.

There was no appearance by the petitioner, New York City Fire Department.

Nora Brown, authorized representative, appeared on behalf of Respondent

I credit the summons details and find that the petitioner has established a valid charge against the Respondent. Petitioner established its prima facie case through the IO's affirmed statement in the Summons. See 48 RCNY § 6-12(b). Once Petitioner established its case, the burden shifted to Respondent to refute the charge or establish an affirmative defense. See 48 RCNY § 6-12(a). Since no rebuttal or defense was given to refute the charge or establish an affirmative defense. Accordingly, the summons is sustained, and the mandatory standard penalty is imposed.
