Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner, NYC Fire Department, appeared by authorized representative, Russell Walker; Respondent, appeared by authorized representative, Nora Brown.

The summons sets forth a violation of 3 RCNY 109-02, and cited violating categories ("VC"), # 5.

Mr. Walker stated that he would rely on the allegations as set forth in the summons. He recommended a mitigated penalty as the records indicated timely correction.

Ms. Brown stated that the violation was corrected in a timely manner for purposes of mitigation.

I find that the summons sets forth a prima facie case. I find that the credible statements establish that the violation was corrected in a timely manner and that the penalty should be mitigated.

Accordingly, the summons is sustained and the mandatory mitigated penalty is imposed.
