Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Telephone hearing held on 9/2/2026

Respondent Viacheslav Davydov appeared by Attorney Michael Sargo, Esq.

Petitioner did not appear

On 7/14/26, at 90-59 91 PL, QUEENS, the I/O issued this summons alleging a violation of AC 19-190(b) (no mail in penalty noted, maximum penalty noted of $250. The allegation notes "Right of way, failure to yield."

Mr. Sargo correctly pointed out that the affidavit of service is blank and therefore service is defective, moving to dismiss. This motion is granted. Mr. Sargo also argued there is no prima facie case.

Here, there is also no prima facie case as the allegation does not note the violation occurred at the time and place of occurrence, that it was witnessed by the I/O, that Respondent was driving a motor vehicle, or that there was an injury sustained. Accordingly, service is improper, the summons is facially defective and the summons must be DISMISSED.
