Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The summons was issued for a violation of 19-190(B) of the NYC Admin., Code for failure to yield. Specifically, the IO stated, "At TPO IO was informed by pedestrian that defendant did strike him, failed to yield."

No one appeared for Petitioner

Michael Nacmais, Esq., appeared and denied the violation. He made motions to dismiss, namely:

1.The affidavit of service is defective since it is blank

2.The summons lacks a mail in penalty

3.Details of the violation do not establish a prima facie case in that there is no description of the physical injury.

I find the summons does not state a prima facie case since no injury was alleged.

Accordingly, I DISMISS the violation.
