Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Michael Nacmias appeared on behalf of Respondent for a phone hearing on August 10, 2026 in response to the above-issued summons. No appearance on behalf of Petitioner.

Respondent claimed that service was defective as the affidavit of service was blank; the summons does not state what the respondent was doing; and does not state that a pedestrian was involved.

I find that service was defective because the affidavit was blank. Summons dismissed.
