Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner, NYPD, did not appear for the hearing. Michael Sargo, Esq. appeared for Respondent, Xiaohua Qian, motorist.

Respondent has been charged with New York City Administrative Code Section 19-190(b) for failure to yield, causing physical injury.

Mr. Sargo stated the following. The summons is not prima facie, because it states that the issuing officer was informed of the incident; he had no personal knowledge, and there is no description of any physical injury. Additionally, service was defective because the affirmation of service is blank.

I credit Mr. Sargo's claims. I find that the summons fails to state facts sufficient to establish the violation, and service was defective. The summons is dismissed.
