Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent is charged with a violation of A.C. 19-121(A).

The summons states, "At TPO the respondent was in violation of construction equipment (containers) / materials (packages) placed on the street/sidewalk without a DOT permit upon inspection."

Respondent, Solo Energy & Electrical Inc, appeared at the telephone hearing by authorized representative, Nora Brown.

Irving Pantin, Court Representative, NYPD Traffic represented petitioner at the telephone hearing.

Irving Pantin submitted into evidence a 3 page pdf that had 3 black & white, dated and time stamped photos that he said showed the container on the roadway.

Nora Brown submitted into evidence a copy of a DOT Commercial Refuse Container Permit, Permit #: S16-2025275-A19, issued to Cogent Waste Solutions LLC to occupy the roadway in front of 39-43 Dumont Ave, S.I. from 10/02/2025 to 10/03/2025.

Nora Brown made a motion to dismiss arguing that Cogent Waste Solutions LLC had a valid permit and was responsible for the container. In addition, Nora Brown said it looks like there are also household packages.

Irving Pantin said DOT's position is no recommendation.

I find the party responsible for the container had a valid permit at the time. Respondent established a valid defense. Therefore, respondent is not in violation. The summons is dismissed.
