Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

On March 28, 2026 respondent was charged with a violation for failure to yield.

Michael Nacmias appeared for respondent. NYPD did not appear.

During the hearing, respondent disputed the summons, requesting the affidavit of service. Arguing on the merits, stating he moved to dismiss as the summons fails to establish a prima facie case of stating a motor vehicle was used and that an injury occurred.

Upon review of the summons and the affidavit, I find service was defective as the affidavit is blank. On the merits, a prima facie case is not established.

Accordingly, the summons is dismissed.
