Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The NYC Fire Department appeared via their representative Kofi Speed at a telephone hearing on September 29, 2025. Frank Tamberino authorized representative for PALI RLTY LLC appeared at the hearing.

The summons charges VC20 for failure to conduct required inspections and testing.

Petitioner relied on the allegation of the summons and was seeking correction. Petitioner confirmed a cure letter was sent to Respondent and recommended zero penalty on all charges.

The affirmations of the inspector in the summons are credited and establish the violation. I find Respondent has cured the violations and impose no penalty. Thus, the summons is sustained.
