Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

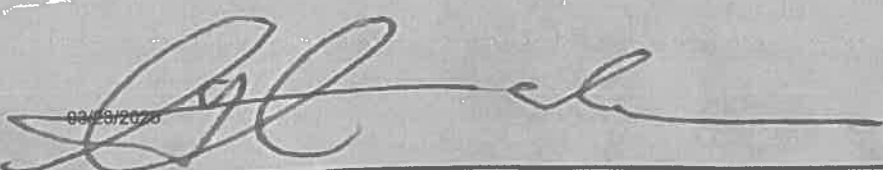

Respondent, HP Building Management appeared by Michael Nacmias Esq., as attorney, and the issuing officer Pantin Irvin, appeared for the petitioner, NYPD.

The respondent is charged with a violation of section 19-121 (a) of the NYC Administrative Code for obstruction of street with construction materials/equipment without permit.

Mr. Irvin reaffirmed the violation and submits in support, the evidence package, including photographs showing the cited violating conditios.

Mr. Nacmias denies but did not rebut the violation.

As the petitioner has proved its case, and the respondent has not established a sufficient legal defense to the violation, I credit the facts alleged in the charge. Therefore, the violation is sustained, and an approved penalty is hereby imposed.
