Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The Respondent, L&T CONSULTANT LLC., appeared by its Attorney-at-Law, MICHAEL SARGO, ESQ. The Petitioner appeared by Inspector W.GOMEZ. The summons alleges that the Respondent failed to obtain a DOT permit for the construction equipment placed on the street.

In further support of the Petitioner's case, Inspector Gomez presented an evidence package that consisted of a copy of a DOB permit issued to the Respondent and a photo of the container that was observed on the street. (PX1). After reviewing Petitioner's evidence, Mr. Sargo generally denied the violation but did not present a rebuttal.

I credit the Petitioner's name and I find that the violating condition existed as alleged find the Respondent liable as charged and the summons is sustained.
