Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent, Pro-Tek Services of NY LLC was issued the above summons alleging a violation of the NYC Administrative Code §24-163. Joshua Santis appeared remotely as Respondent's authorized representative. John McLoughlin appeared remotely for the Petitioner'

The details of the summons allege the Respondent caused or permitted the idling of a motor vehicle for longer than 3 minutes.

The Respondent's representative denied the details of the violation but did not put forth a defense.

I credit the undisputed findings of the issuing officer and find that the cited condition did exist. Without a defense to the contrary, the summons is prima facie evidence of the details alleged.

Accordingly, the summons is sustained.
