Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The Department of Transportation (DOT) issued this Summons to Builders Joseph & Sons LLC charging a violation for storing construction materials and bricks in the roadway parking lane without a DOT permit on the date and at the location indicated above. Brijnanand Persaud represented DOT at the remote hearing, and Michael Sargo, Esq., represented the LLC.

In addition to relying on the Summons, Mr. Persaud submitted an evidence package with photographs taken and annotated by the inspector who issued the Summons and the Department of Buildings permit used to identify the LLC. After reviewing this evidence, Mr. Sargo denied the violation but offered no defense.

I credit the sworn statement of fact in the Summons and DOT's evidence, and I find that this support the violation charged.

This violation is sustained, and the standard penalty of $750 is imposed.
