Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Michael Nacmias, Esq. appeared on behalf of Respondent Ronald Williams.

Petitioner alleges AC 19-190 (b) – “at the time and place of occurrence, I/O is informed by Ronald Williams whose address is known to the NYPD that he did not yield to pedestrian.”

Mr. Nacmias states respondent denies the allegation. He moves to dismiss the violation based on petitioner’s failure to make out a prima facie case of the charge because the petitioner does not allege whether respondent was driving or driving a vehicle. In addition, he argues no physical injury is alleged.

I find this summons is defective because it does not make out a prima facie case of the section of law charged including stating whether the respondent was driving or driving a vehicle at the time of the occurrence. In addition, the violating details do not allege physical injury to the pedestrian.

Accordingly, this summons must be dismissed.
