Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

Cassie Rene appeared for Petitioner. Phoebe Dossett appeared for Respondent.

The issuing officer charged a Class 1 violation of Admin Code § 28-105.1 for work without a permit. Specifically, the inspector observed a large wood post installed to brace ceiling located at electrical mechanical room, cellar level, with no approved plans on record.

Issuing Officer E Jarratt appeared at the hearing and testified that he was at the building for a DHS safety compliance inspection; that he accessed the building; that he found the violating condition in the cellar; that the Respondent can't just shore something up this way without approval because it could be stressing another part of the building, like what the posts are supported on; that this kind of work needs to be done by a licensed professional; that the post is not made of fire proof material.

In support, Petitioner provided Exhibit 1, the summons with service and photos. Petitioner recommended the standard penalty be imposed because no certificate of correction was on file.

Respondent argued that the conditions were not inherently dangerous.

The issuing officer's affirmed statement established a prima facie case of the violation. See 48 RCNY § 6-12(b). I find the condition was inherently dangerous.

As Respondent has not refuted Petitioner's case or established a defense recognized defense to the charge, the summons is sustained.
