Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

Kimberly Manas appeared for Petitioner with Inspector Adegboyega and submitted an evidence package with photographs of the cite and location of the incident. He said that he requested evidence of worker orientations but there were some totally missing and others expired. Andre Autz, Esq. appeared for Respondent and said that the workers were oriented and submitted 2 examples. He did not have all of the orientations to submit.

Based on all available credible evidence, I find that Respondent had workers on site without orientations or refreshers, as required.

Accordingly, the summons is sustained.
