Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The respondent was charged with failure to yield causing injury. He was represented by Mr. Michael Nacmias Esq.

Mr. Nacmias argued that the affidavit of service was blank and therefore there is no jurisdictional predicate established. Secondly, he contended that the details of violation were insufficient in that they were conclusory, did not specify the injury nor even whether there was any injury at all, causing which is the basis of the violation.

Based on the foregoing, there is no prima facie case of violation.
