Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent, Mateusz M. Tylutki, appeared by its attorney, Michael Sargo, Esq., in response to the above issued summons for an alleged violation of New York City Administrative Code 24-236(e). Petitioner appeared by Martin Joyce, agency hearing representative.

In support of the summons, Mr. Joyce presented screenshots, registration information for the vehicle, and three short video clips from various angles.

Upon review of Petitioner's evidence, Mr. Sargo denied the allegations without rebuttal.

I credit the allegations in the summons as well as the evidence submitted by Mr. Joyce at the hearing in finding that Petitioner proved this violation by a preponderance of the evidence. Respondent failed to rebut the allegations or establish a valid defense. Summons is sustained, and Respondent is ordered to pay the standard penalty for a first offense.
