Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent received a New York City Police Department summons for a violation of Section 19-190(A) of the New York City Administrative Code for failure to yield. In the summons, the issuing officer (IO) stated that on December 26, 2024 at 2:45 PM, he observed "motorist making a left turn failure to yield to bicycles" at West 25th Street and 6th Avenue, New York, NY.

In a phone in hearing, Mr. Michael Nacmias, attorney for Respondent, stated that there is no proof of service as the affidavit of service is blank. As for the merits, he argued that the summons fails to establish a prima facie case in that is not clearly written and does not provide sufficient details.

Here, the affidavit of service is blank. As such, based on the foregoing, I dismiss this violation for defective service.
