Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent, MAYA ROCCHIO, appeared by their Attorney-at-Law, MICHAEL NACMIAS, ESQ. No one appeared for the Petitioner. The summons alleges a violation for a failure to yield to pedestrian right of way in the crosswalk. The details state "...Respondent was travelling S/B on Ave Y & attempted to make a left turn on Ave Y and struck a pedestrian in the intersection. Pedestrian has backpain removed to hospital". t

Counsel moved to dismiss the violation on the basis that the details as alleged fail to support the injury and motor vehicle elements of the charge and that the affidavit of service is blank. Counsel's motions are granted. It is well settled that a blank affidavit is not proper to support due service of process and it is a fact that the details do not adequately the material elements of the charge. Based on the foregoing, the summons is dismissed.
