Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

0008475 35H

The summons was issued for a violation of 24-163 idling of a motor vehicle for more than 3 minutes. Repeat third offense .

Mr. Grosso appeared for the petitioner, via e mail, and indicated that the petitioner would not appear, based on the basic denial.

Michael Sargo Esq. of NACMIAS LAW FIRM, appeared for the respondent, I HALPER PAPER & SUPPLIES INC., and denied the summons. He did not offer a rebuttal or contest the repeat designation of the summons.

The summon is sustained. I find based on the credible statements of the respondent's attorney, that the prima facie case was not rebutted, and a meritorious defense was not put forth. Accordingly, the standard repeat third offense penalty is imposed.
