Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

00841005n

The summons was issued for a violation of 24-163 idling of a motor vehicle for more than 3 minutes. Third offense.

John P. McLaughlin appeared for the petitioner and stood by the summons as written. He noted that the summons was issued as a third offense and confirmed the validity of the priors.

Lance Chebin, of Nacmias Law Firm, appeared for the respondent, REFRESH BLUETRITON BRANDS INC READY and denied the summons. He did not contest the underlying summonses. He did not put forth a defense.

The summon is sustained. I find based on the credible testimony of the respondent's representative, that he failed to rebut the prima facie case or put forth a defense. Accordingly, I find the respondent was in violation of the cited section of law and the repeat penalty for a third offense is imposed.
