Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

000838199n

The summons was issued for a violation of 24-163 idling of a motor vehicle for more than 3 minutes.

John P. McLaughlin appeared for the petitioner and stood by the summons as written.

Lance Chebin, of Nacmias Law Firm, appeared for the respondent, DHL and denied the summons. He did not put forth a defense.

The summon is sustained. I find based on the credible testimony of the respondent's representative that he failed to rebut the prima facie case or put forth a defense. Accordingly, I find the respondent was in violation of the cited section of law and the standard penalty is imposed.
