Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The respondent was represented by Lance Chebin. The petitioner was represented by Michael Grosso. The summons alleges that the respondent's vehicle was observed idling for more than three (3) minutes without a valid reason. The respondent has denied the charged violation but only argues that the wrong respondent was named. The petitioner has presented the record of vehicle registration for the noted license plate to establish that the license plate of the vehicle noted on the face of the summons belongs to the named respondent.

Based on the above, I find that there is sufficient evidence to establish that the named respondent was the appropriate party to cite in this matter. The respondent has denied the charged violation but presented no argument or evidence to either rebut the charged violation or establish a valid defense thereto. As such, the summons is sustained, and the appropriate penalty assessed.
