Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner New York City Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) was represented by DEP court representative LEAH SMITH.

Respondent PENSKE TRUCK LEASING CORP was represented by authorized representative LANCE CHEBIN of the Nacmias Law Office.

Respondent was charged with a violation of § 24-163 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York (Code) for idling a motor vehicle engine for longer than three minutes.

Petitioner submitted into evidence (1) a photograph of the respondent's vehicle with the name of the respondent emblazoned on its side; (2) a photograph of the respondent's vehicle with its license plate visible; (3) a screenshot of the respondent's NYS DMV license plate information from COMPASS; (4) the Redacted Idling Complaint; (5) a video submitted by the Citizen Complainant detailing the violating conditions of the engine on, visible exhaust, engine noise and no loading or unloading, no liftgate in operation, 3 minutes and 11 seconds long; and (5) DEP v. U-Haul Co of Arizona Inc., Appeal No. 2000010 [April 23, 2020].

I find the Issuing Officer's sworn-to summons narrative and submitted documentary evidence to be credible and persuasive.

Respondent's representative stated that he had reviewed the video evidence previously provided to him and denied the violation without further rebuttal.

Code § 24-163(a) prohibits the idling of a motor vehicle engine in excess of three minutes while parked, standing, or stopped. Per § 6-12(b) of Title 48 of the Rules of the City of New York (RCNY), a summons affirmed under penalty of perjury will be admitted as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. Petitioner is therefore not required to submit a video at the hearing to establish its case. See DEP v. TM & T Service Station Inc., Appeal No. 1901827 (March 19, 2020), though citizen-complainants must supply one to DEP along with their complaint. See DEP v. U-Haul Co. of Arizona Inc., Appeal No. 2001342 (January 14, 2021). Even where a video is presented, the charge does not fail if the video does not clearly show the vehicle vibrating, producing visible emissions, or making audible engine noise. See DEP v. Hub Truck Rental Corp., Appeal No. 2001344 (February 11, 2021). In such cases, once Petitioner has established its prima facie case, the critical inquiry is whether the respondent has sustained its burden to refute Petitioner's evidence or otherwise establish a defense. See 48 RCNY § 6-12(a).

Code § 24-163(a) provides that no one shall permit the idling of a motor vehicle engine for longer than three minutes unless the engine is used to operate a loading, unloading, or processing device.

The credible evidence, here the sworn-to summons narrative of the Issuing Officer, is sufficient to establish, and I find, that respondent was in violation on the date of the offense. The violation is SUSTAINED, and I impose the penalty of $350.
