Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner did not appear. Respondent, HALPER PAPER & SUPPLIES INC., appeared by its attorney, Joshua Santis Esq., to answer a charge of allowing its truck to idle for more than 3 minutes without any mechanical movement while parked, standing or stopped. The violation is charged as a third offense with prior/underlying summonses 000709747Y and 000714113Z.

Mr. Santis testified that, while Respondent denied the violation, Respondent could not rebut the facts alleged in the summons. Mr. Santis also stated that Respondent is not disputing the violation being charged as a third offense.

I find that the violating condition alleged existed on the day in question in that Respondent allowed its truck to idle for more than 3 minutes without any mechanical movement while parked, standing or stopped. Accordingly, the summons is SUSTAINED as a third offense and a third offense penalty is imposed.
