Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

Nora Brown the authorized representative of the Respondent RAPID ARMORED appeared at today's hearing.

Andy Guzman appeared for the Petitioner, the Department of Environmental Protection.

The Respondent is charged with making a false statement in that the subject vehicle had a placard indicating it was exempt from idling regulations. This matter alleges a third offense.

Inspector Guzman produced photographs, two prior summonses, a complaint report, and proof of service made a part of this file.

Ms. Brown argued the Respondent had a variance in effect. She submitted a letter issued to Rapid Armour dated July 29, 2021. She argued the letter allows for the variance.

Inspector Guzman argued the variance indicated in Respondent's letter expired prior to the issuance of this summons and was neither extended nor in effect when this summons was issued.

I credit the Petitioner.

Accordingly, I find the Respondent in violation, and impose the statutory third offense penalty.
