Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent is charged with a violation of 24-163, idling of motor vehicle engine for more than three minutes.

Michael Nacmias, Esq. represented respondent, Shukrat Shodiyev, at the telephone hearing.

Michael Grosso, DEP, Supervisor, emailed the Judicial Hearing Officer that this is not their summons, and DEP will not be appearing for this summons.

Michael Nacmias made a Motion to Dismiss arguing that petitioner failed to provide proof of service since the affidavit of service was left blank.

Michael Nacmias also made a Motion to Dismiss that the summons does not indicate the subsection and fails to allege if respondent was in the motor vehicle or that it belonged to him.

I find the affidavit of service was left blank and failed to provide proof of service. Therefore, respondent's motion to dismiss is granted. The summons is dismissed.
