Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent SERHII HOLOVACHOV appeared at a remote telephonic hearing on 12/12/2025 by Michael Nacmias, Esq.

There was no appearance by Petitioner NYPD.

Respondent is charged with a violation of NYC Adm. Code 19-190(b) for allegedly failing to yield to a pedestrian striking pedestrian in left leg causing P/I.

Mr. Nacmias moved to dismiss the Summons arguing that the Affidavit of Service is blank. In support of Respondent's motion to dismiss Mr. Nacmias cited the Board's decision in NYPD v. Barrett Cherelle, Appeal No. 2000420 (June 18, 2020) which held: "For the reasons stated in NYPD v. Ajaz B. Kiani, Appeal No. 1801238 (June 18, 2020), the Board finds that upon Respondent's challenge to service, Petitioner failed to establish proper service where the purported proof of service on the reverse side of the summons was left blank and not signed and Petitioner did not appear at the hearing to supplement its proof of service."

Respondent's motion to dismiss is granted as the Affidavit of Service is completely blank and unsigned and Petitioner did not appear at the hearing to supplement its proof of service.

Accordingly, the Summons is dismissed.
