Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent appeared by Michael Nacmias, attorney, hereinafter "respondent." Respondent is charged with failure to yield with e-scooter. Respondent argues that the affidavit of service is blank and therefore moves to dismiss for lack of proof of service. Respondent also argues on the merits that there are no details about the physical injury sustained. Respondent also argues that an e-scooter is not considered a motorist.

I note that the affidavit of service is blank and I am dismissing this matter for lack of service.
