Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner did not appear and Respondent appeared by its counsel, Michael Nacmias, Esq. Respondent is charged with being observed with an open container of Budweiser beer. Respondent moved to dismiss on the grounds: (1) that there was no affidavit of service completed and signed so that OATH does not have jurisdiction to hear this case; and (2) on the merits, there was no statement as to the alcoholic content of the container as required by the section as it may have been non-alcoholic beverage.

I grant Respondent's motion and dismiss on the grounds that the affidavit of service is defective (non-existent). Accordingly, this summons is dismissed
