Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

Ilma Babu appeared for the Respondent. The Petitioner was represented by Michael Grosso.

The Respondent was charged with idling the engine of a vehicle for more than three minutes at E. 6th Street (between 21st Avenues B and C) in Manhattan on February 21, 2025.

The Petitioner relied on the summons and submitted supporting evidence (PET EXHS 1-5, supporting docs and a mobile device video). The Respondent's Counsel argued that the vehicle's operator was engaged in a commercial delivery and that the submitted evidence failed to illustrate such activity. The Petitioner argues that a portion of the video demonstrated that the vehicle's liftgate was not in use and that not commercial activity was taking place at the time of issuance.

I find the Petitioner's summons to be persuasive evidence that the Respondent was in violation on the date of issuance.

The summons is hereby sustained.
