Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent, Barosa was issued the above-listed summons. Nora Brown appeared remotely as Respondent's authorized representative. Khadija Hassan appeared remotely on behalf of the Petitioner.

The summons alleges a VC 19 violation for failing to provide required documentation. The summons charges a repeat violation.

The petitioner rested on the details of the summons and offered the details of the prior violation on the record.

Respondent's representative denied the details of the summons but did not offer a defense.

I credit the undisputed findings of the issuing officer and find that the cited condition did exist. Without a defense put forth to the contrary, the summons is prima facie evidence of the details alleged.

Accordingly, the summons is sustained as a repeat violation.
