Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The summons is sustained.

The Respondent, LEDO NYC LLC, appeared by its authorized representative, NORA BROWN, NACMIAS LAW FIRM PLLC. The Petitioner, NYC FIRE DEPARTMENT, appeared by its representative, Inspector David Lopez.

The summons alleges a Violation Code 5, Recordkeeping, for a failure to provide records of cleaning of a commercial kitchen, in accordance with NYC Fire Code Sections 107.7 and 609.1.

Petitioner's representative relied on the summons for Petitioner's main case.

Respondent's representative stated that the violation has been corrected. In support of Respondent's assertion. Respondent's counsel produced the following evidence: 1) a cleaning sticker from a licensed contractor (RxA) and 2) an invoice for the cleaning services (RxB).

Upon review of Respondent's evidence, Petitioner's representative recommended a mitigated penalty for timely correction prior to the first scheduled hearing date.

I find on the Petitioner's credible case that the violating condition described in the summons existed and the mitigated penalty is imposed.

The summons is sustained.
