Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Petitioner appeared through Inspector Ahmad Al-Kaysey. Respondent appeared through attorney Frank Tamberino.

Summons 014194203Y charged two violations of the Fire Code, namely, a VC 1 for problems with the portable fire extinguishers, a VC 12 for a defective local alarm, a VC 17 for failure to have the required certificate of fitness (S-12), and a VC 19 for failure to notify FDNY for an out of service fire protection communication system.

Respondent did not deny the charge, but submitted evidence of correction to the Fire Department at the hearing. See Exhibit A.

Petitioner recommended the standard penalty be imposed because on the VC 17 because the certificate of fitness provided was not an S-12. Petitioner recommended the mitigated penalty for the other three charges for timely correction.

Accordingly, the summons is sustained and the petitioner's recommended penalties will be imposed.
