Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

Malka Amar, Esq. appeared as counsel for the New York City Department of Buildings. She relied on the issuing inspector's sworn written testimony contained in the summons and recommended the minimum class 1 penalty.

Caroline Kane, Esq. appeared as counsel for the respondent. She submitted no defenses nor any evidence in support.

Respondent is charged with failing to provide a fire alarm system, under BC 907.2.8, as a class 1 charge.

I find that this is properly classified as a class 1 charge. A class 1 charge is a major violations are those specified as such by the New York City Construction Codes or those where the violating condition affects life, health, safety, property, or the public interest but does not require immediate corrective action, or, with respect to outdoor advertising, those where the violation and penalty are appropriate as an economic disincentive to the continuation or the repetition of the violating condition.

I sustain this summons as a class 1 charge, and I impose the statutory approved class 1 minimum penalty.
