Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Michael Nacmias, Esq. appeared on behalf of Respondent for a phone hearing on March 25, 2025 in response to the above-issued summons for an alleged violation of 19-190(b) for failure to yield causing physical injury.

Respondent claimed that the summons fails to state a prima facie case as it does not allege a physical injury, and does not allege a penalty amount. Respondent also claimed that the summons should be dismissed because the affidavit of service is blank.

The summons fails to state a prima case as it does not allege that Respondent's motor vehicle caused contact with a pedestrian resulting in physical injury. Therefore, the summons is dismissed.
