Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent, MICHAEL D LEWIS, appeared by their Attorney-at-Law, MICHAEL NACMIAS, ESQ. No one appeared for the Petitioner. The summons alleges a violation for a failure to yield to pedestrian right of way in the crosswalk. The details state materially "...failure to yield right of way causing injury to a ped struck".

Counsel moved to dismiss the violation on the basis that the details as alleged fail to support the injury and motor vehicle elements of the charge. Counsel's motion is granted. It is a fact that the details do not adequately the material elements of the charge. Based on the foregoing, the summons is dismissed because Petitioner failed to establish a prima facie case for the violation.
