Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The summons is sustained.

The Respondent, MABROUK VENTURES LLC DBA MR BROADWAY, appeared by its authorized representative, NORA BROWN, NACMIAS LAW FIRM PLLC. The Petitioner, NYC FIRE DEPARTMENT, appeared by its representative, Inspector David Lopez.

The summons alleges a Violation Code 5, Recordkeeping, for a failure to provide records of cleaning of a commercial kitchen, in accordance with NYC Fire Code Sections 107.7 and 901.6.

Petitioner's representative relied on the summons for Petitioner's main case and stated that correction was submitted prior to the first scheduled hearing. Respondent's representative recommended a mitigated penalty for timely correction.

Respondent's representative agreed that the violation had been timely corrected.

I find on the Petitioner's credible case that the violating condition described in the summons existed and the mitigated penalty is imposed.

The summons is sustained.
