Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

The hearing was conducted by telephone on May 16, 2025. Petitioner did not appear. Respondent was represented by Michael Nacmias, Esq.

The summons charged a violation of Administrative Code 19-190(b) and alleged police responded to a motor vehicle accident where victim stated that he was in a crosswalk with right of way when defendant failed to yield striking victim and causing broken legs.

Respondent's counsel argued that the summons did not establish a prima facie case as it did not allege that Respondent was in a motor vehicle. Counsel also challenged service.

I find that dismissal is warranted as the affidavit of service was completely blank. Under 48 RCNY 6-08(a)(1), petitioner is required to file proof of service with OATH. Petitioner did not appear to offer supplemental testimony. Service is thus deemed defective. See NYPD v. J. Doe, Appeal No. 2200921 (August 30, 2022).

As service is defective, the summons is dismissed.
