Findings of Facts & Conclusions of Law

This matter was heard remotely, via telephonic conference, on June 6, 2025. Respondent appeared via Michael Sargo, identified as the attorney for the named respondent. Petitioner did not appear.

The summons alleges a violation of NYC AC 19-190(b). The date of occurrence was April 17, 2025, at 12:30pm.

Respondent requested that I review the affidavit of service, to see if it was filled out; I confirmed that it was not. Respondent moves to dismiss, on these grounds.

Respondent further moves to dismiss, on the grounds that the summons fails to state a prima facie case, as it does not allege an injury "with specificity."

I credit respondent's testimony, and find that, as a matter of law, this summons must be dismissed, as the affidavit of service, attached to the summons, is completely blank, and not filled in at all. OATH rules require that a petitioner submit both a valid summons, and proof of service; otherwise, OATH cannot assert jurisdiction over the matter.

As such, the summons is hereby dismissed.
