Findings of Fact & Conclusions of Law

Respondent, William Kelton was issued the above listed summons alleging a violation of the New York City Administrative Code §16-118(2)(a). Frank Tambarino, Esq. appeared remotely as Respondent's counsel. Petitioner did not appear.

The summons alleges that the issuing officer observed litter within the 18" curb line during the established routing hour of 8:00-8:59am.

Respondent's counsel argued that the Petitioner failed to establish their case by relying on the summons alone.

I find the summons is prima facie evidence of the details alleged.

I credit the findings of the issuing officer and find that the cited condition did exist. The Respondent failed to put forth a valid defense.

Accordingly, the summons is sustained.
